The meeting will be called together by Mr. James F. Bradley, who will introduce Mayor Maurice, who in turn will present the speaker of the evening. Se ntor Martin has many friends in the city, and there are many more who will go to hear him state his case. There will be no meetings of Council committees in honor of the occasion. ETTRICKS, VA., May 4—Fresh meats of all kinds have advanced in price so much in the last two or three weeks that some of the butchers of Petersburg have cancelled their licenses and will not attempt to handle any more meats before fall or until it gets cheaper, if it ever does.

Vegetables are coming in some and will soon be plentiful, and the dealers gay they cannot sell beef for sixteen and two-thirds and eighteen cents, while many families are raising fowls and vegetables. There seems no hope for the wages at Pocahontas cotton mill to be restored, as promised, and the mill is quite shorthanded in consequence, though there is not so much work of any kind around here as there was two or three years ago, and there are many idle persons around town.

A THINKING CAMPAIGN.

The campaign this year is what might very properly be termed "a thinking campaign." To a much greater extent than ever before the voters are silent as to how they intend to vote. And this applies alike to the municipal and State campaigns, and to an extent that is puzzling the candidates for office.

The interest in the city election is increasing. People this week have been rapidly paying their poil tax to qualify themselves as voters.

The interest here centers largely about the office of city treasurer, for which there are two candidates. Charles A. Slaughter, the incumbent for many years, and william E. It was the best thing Mr. Egan could have done for Miss Franklin, however, since it is partly responsible for the fact that she is now enjoying all the privileges that can possibly be granted to a newspaper correspondent in Japan. Judicial Dignity Upset.

Judicial Dignity Opset.

Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis is noted for a famous retort made to Judge Christian Kohlsaat, who, until his recent promotion, was a district judge, while Grosscup and Jenkins were circuit judges. Mr. Landis is as drol as his name indicates his father to have been when he conferred it on his son. The christening dicates his funer to have been when he conferred it on his son. The christening took place after the father's return from the Civil War—but that is another story. That Landis appreciates his name and enver sough the assistance of the Logislature in the matter, is, in character with his slight regard for the names and titles of others. In truth, he is not overshui-owed with reverence for persons of place, and so it was that he went about speaking of "Chris" Kohlsaat, the United States district judge.
